3. The available results indicate that the Richard Wells family of the Big Sandy Valley of Kentucky descends from Zorobabel Wells and his father Richard Wells who was born 1618 in Harbury, Warwickshire, England. This is possible only if there are unbroken Wells's markers that match other descendants of English Wells's families or with the unbroken Wells's male line. These results will become more definite during Phase II testing with a larger pool of participants.

NOTICE

Letters or E-mail from relatives that I feel worthy of sharing with you. Some of them sent data for the book that the Wells Family will be publishing. I appreciate each of you.

MARGARET BERRYMAN Excerpts from Margaret's letter, that was received the end of September, follows. Margaret descends from Richard Wells's son Andrew and has been researching this line for the Wells Family Book. We appreciate her efforts and the Wells family has now set two markers for graves that she has found – one being Andrew and now Alberta Wells, Feb. 8, 1909-March 7, 1909, daughter of F.A. and Ada Wells. We do appreciate all the work that you do, Margaret.

Alberta Wells gravestone

Dear Mary,

Enclosed is the promised picture of the gravestone I had set in Gantz Cemetery, Jefferson County, Iowa for Alberta Wells, infant sister of my mother.

At last the elusive son of Andrew Wells, Dr. William M. Wells, has been found. In response to my inquiry, the Mahaska County Historical Society in Oskaloosa, Iowa has notified me that he is buried in Forest Cemetery, lot 24, section 22, in Oskaloosa. His marker reads: Dr. William M. Wells, age 61yr, 10mo, and 0 days, died April 28, 1887. If I figure right, this makes his birth date 28 June 1826 and means he was the first-born and his brother, Rufus Morgan the second child. I am writing the historical society today to see if they have any information about any descendants. Will forward any information I get. You have no idea how long I have looked for this man and, in three trips to Iowa, how many cemeteries I have walked, stone by stone. I am also going to ask for a picture of his stone, if there is one.

This is all the new Wells information I have for today.

Love, Margaret.

Hi Mary,

Thanks for your note. I had a wonderful time at the reunion, even though it was all too brief, and want to thank you and Manford. It was nice to finally meet you, too. I really appreciated Manford's tour of the graves and want to thank him again, too.

I am now back in Boston, but was able to visit with my mother in Pittsburgh and show her some of the information and tell her about the reunion. She enjoyed hearing about it and will look for some old photos of her family, too. I think I may have convinced her and my sisters to come to the next reunion with me. I already made reservations for some cabins at Jenny Wiley State Park. (I took my grandfather there years ago when I drove him to visit Esta Mae, and he told me all about his father's farm which is under the lake now.)

I am sorry I missed the genealogical meeting that John B. Wells III held. It sounded very interesting and I am excited to hear about the new information. Please do let me know, or have John send it along.

Thanks, Weldon

She will be making every effort to get all of her family to attend also.

Kimberly, we look forward to seeing all of you at the 2003 reunion. I went to school with several of her father's siblings but have not seen them for over 50 years. Thanks, Kim.

This event happens the third weekend of each June, beginning Friday evening and ending Sunday evening and is held at the Camp Happy Valley Salvation Army Camp grounds at Teays Valley, West VA. FREE lodging is provided either in the lodge or cabins and family members bring food and cook and eat together. Meals also include breakfast each morning with meat, gravy, eggs and homemade biscuits. I have attended before and we had a great time.
